

Coles Personal Information Collection Statement

Coles Group Limited
ABN 11 004 089 936
Date: November 2018

Coles Group Limited of 800 Toorak Road, Hawthorn East, Victoria, collects your personal health information collected through the InjuryCARE 1300 service in order to assist with determination of your treatment requirements and work capacity.

If you do not disclose the personal information that we are seeking to collect then you will be unable to access the InjuryCARE 1300 service. Instead, you may choose to seek medical advice/treatment from your normal treating doctor.

We may also collect personal information about you (such as your current contact details, details of your injury/condition, any first aid/activity advice provided, recommended treatment and work capacity) from Injurnet Australia Pty Ltd, your employer and any practitioners you are referred to via this service should you choose to participate in the InjuryCARE 1300 program.

We may disclose your personal information collected through the InjuryCARE process to your employer and any practitioners you are referred to via this service.

Our Privacy Policy (available at <http://www.coles.com.au/privacy>) contains information about how you may:

- access personal information we hold about you and seek the correction of such information;
- complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, and how we will deal with such a complaint.

Queries regarding this Collection Statement and privacy-related matters should be directed to the Coles Privacy Officer:
